IN AN endeavour to make its contribution towards the promotion of excellence and capacity building of existing and future leaders, Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Raipur in association with PRS Legislative Research on Management has recently organised a three daylong training programme for the staff of secretariat.

The training programme, which concluded on January 13, marked the participation of secretariat staff from state assemblies of separate states. In the third batch of training programme, 21 participants from Andhra Pradesh, Gujarat, Maharashtra, Meghalaya, Telangana, Uttar Pradesh and West Bengal registered their active participation. Sessions on understanding budget, effective support to legislators and best practices of state legislators, key learning from the parliament, time management and team building were delivered. The group also visited Chhattisgarh Vidhan Sabha.

The programme was very interactive and it enabled secretariat staff to share their notes and also laid the foundation of a community that could learn from each other in the future.
